GeoDayTrip
Southeast Asia Buddhist Temples
Saturday, November 6, 2004

The Arizona Geographic Alliance is pleased to announce a GeoDayTrip organized in partnership with the Program for Southeast Asian Studies (PSEAS). Designed for elementary through high school teachers, this GeoDayTrip will feature information and a classroom ready lesson centered on Buddhism, its cultural impact in Arizona and the world, and a visit to some Phoenix metro temples. In addition to promoting professional growth and development of teachers, each GeoDayTrip also provides a unique opportunity to meet outstanding Arizona educators and specialists in this subject.

Planned is:
- Overview of Buddhism
- Overview of Buddhist temples in Phoenix Metro area
- Comfortable bus ride to, and tour of, the temple Wat Promkunaram of Arizona
- Thai food lunch, served at the temple

Where:
Arizona State University
John W. Schwada Classroom Office Building (SCOB)
Department of Geography

When: Saturday, November 6, 2004  8:00 am – 3:30 pm

Cost: $30.00 Includes lesson plans, lunch, other free materials, and 6.5 recertification hours.

Deadline to Register: In order to join us on this GEODAYTRIP, we must receive your registration, including payment, no later than 5:00 pm on Thursday, October 28, 2004.

Make checks out to: Arizona Geographic Alliance

Send registration and check or purchase order to: Arizona Geographic Alliance
ASU Department of Geography
P O Box 870104
Tempe, AZ 85287-0104

Phone: 480-965-5361      Fax: 480-965-8313

----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------