

GeoLiteracy Lessons Presented by Master Teachers

Please visit our website to view master teachers presenting GeoLiteracy lessons by video

<http://alliance.la.asu.edu/geoliteracy/resources/GeoLitPresentations.html>

GeoLiteracy Lessons Presented by Master Teachers
(Arizona Geographic Alliance Teacher Consultants and Nationally Board Certified Teachers)

To see these presentations, you will need to download the RealPlayer software found at: <http://www.real.com/player>. You can view these lessons with the for-free versions of RealPlayer. ASU distance learning also has a webpage providing you more information on playing online video at: <http://www.dlt.asu.edu/marc/videoinfo.html>)

This is a sampling of the full set of lessons. Copies of the lesson materials are found on your GeoLiteracy CD.

A Country's Shape is More Than Its Borders D. Rees

Balkan Basics B. Stout

Desert View First Impressions...Gila Trail C. Warren

Desertification Cause and Effect B. Stout

From Around the Corner to Around the World K. Shelton

Grand Canyon: So What's the Attraction? K. Stelton

Great Rivers of Great Civilizations D. Valenzuela

I Am a Rock, I am an Island J. Letofsky

Impact of the European Union B. Stout

In Case of Fire: Mapping Your Classroom S. Cloyd

It's Happening Where? J. Chambers

Maize to Maquiladoras C. Warren

Me on the Map R. Willey

Onceler: Entrepreneur or Exploiter? D. Rees

Over and Through: Physical Geography Terms D. Valenzuela

Put Me in My Place J. Letofsky

Read the U.S.A.: Passport to Regions S. Jenkins

Roxaben - C. Warren

So That the Desert Can Blossom C. Warren

Sticks, Stones, Sinews and Stuff S. Martinez

The Silk Road: An Ancient Internet D. Rees

Three Gorges Dam K. Stelten

Through the Forest and Home Again R. Willey

Walk Around the School R. Willey

Water, Water Everywhere J. Letofsky

Westward Ho: The Difficulties of Emigrants J. Chambers

Wetlands: Why Are They Endangered? M. Stout

What a Map! D. Valenzuela

Yo Ho, Yo Ho, A Pirate's Map for Me S. Martinez