

Happy 100th Birthday Arizona!
Teaching Arizona History with a Geographical Perspective Workshop

As Arizona celebrates its Centennial, teachers are asked to devote more classroom time to the learning of Arizona history and geography. Are you prepared?

The Arizona Geographic Alliance is offering a half-day workshop showcasing 3 lessons (grades 3-5, middle school, and high school) from their Legacy Project -- over 55 free online lessons. This Arizona history and geography workshop will also feature the new Arizona Atlas -- a 36- page color edition of our classroom maps.

Come join the workshop participants and gather materials and lesson plans for the celebration of Arizona's 100th birthday. Participants will receive 3.5 recertification hours and instruction on how to access all Legacy Project lessons. While the workshop is FREE, ASU parking will cost $8.00. An alternative is to use the light rail or other means of public transportation.

This Teaching Arizona History with a Geographical Perspective Workshop is made possible through funds from the Arizona Historical Advisory Commission (AHAC) who is commemorating Arizona's Centennial by designating state Legacy Projects.
