“5 Themes of Geography” Postcard Analysis

Directions: Study each postcard. Discuss the visual images portrayed as well as any captions on the front or back of the card. For EACH of the postcards, complete the following tasks: 1) Give it an appropriate title. 2) Decide which one of the five themes of geography is BEST ILLUSTRATED. 3) Justify your choice, using complete sentences.

---

Postcard: Class Example

Title: ________________________________

Theme of Geography: ________________________________

Why:
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________

---

Select 5 more postcards to continue your “5 Themes” analysis. It is recommended that you use your “5 Themes” Notes to assist you with this assignment. You MUST have at least one postcard per theme!

Postcard 1

Title: ________________________________

Theme of Geography: Location

Why:
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________

---

Postcard 2

Title: ________________________________

Theme of Geography: Place

Why:
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
Postcard 3
Title: ________________________________________________________________
Theme of Geography: Human-Environment Interaction
Why ________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
Postcard 4
Title: ________________________________________________________________
Theme of Geography: Movement
Why ________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
Postcard 5
Title: ________________________________________________________________
Theme of Geography: Regions
Why ________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
What images do you think would be most attractive to:
Tourists: ____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
Retirees: ____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
Businesses: __________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
Kuronatkin 2007